Towing Trailer and Slip Trailer Clause (2008)

The present translation was completed on the basis of the relevant German source text, however, the latter alone is legally authoritative.

The following applies for towing trailer / slip trailers for which insurance is not obligatory:

Under the terms of the agreement insurance cover is extended to the statutory liability as possessor, owner and policy holder of a towing trailer/slip trailer insofar as this is not attached to a towing vehicle (insurance cover is provided here under the vehicle liability insurance).

In addition, insurance cover is extended to the statutory liability with respect to the German Road Traffic Act (StVG), the obligatory insurance law (PflVG) and the General Terms and Conditions for Motor Insurance (AKB, updated 01/01/2008).

Private liability insurance (PHV), that cover the towing trailer/slip trailer unattached to the towing vehicle, takes precedence over this trailer insurance (subsidiary cover).

The insured amount is EUR 50 Mio. in total for personal injury, property damage or financial loss, whereby personal injuries are covered up to a maximum of EUR 8,0 Mio. per injured person.
