Guarantee Insurance for securing Charter Deposits

Charter yachts usually carry comprehensive insurance cover (hull insurance). Charter companies and their insurers have usually agreed on a deductible which is applicable when a claim is made.

Generally, the deductible is equal to the deposit to be lodged by the charterer. If there is damage to the chartered yacht during the sailing trip, the charter company may retain all or part of the deposit.

This financial risk is covered by a Guarantee Insurance for Charter Deposits.

With our guarantee insurance policy there is no deductible. If there is no need for an official licence for sailing the yacht or the chosen cruising area, you do not need this licence for the charter deposit insurance.

You will find all details and premiums on the following pages.

Guarantee Insurance for securing Charter Deposits

Nearly all of the charter companies take a deposit when offering a yacht for charter. If you cause a damage on the chartered yacht, the charter company may keep all or part of this security deposit.

Our Guarantee Insurance enables you to cover this risk under the following conditions.

The Insurer R+V Allgemeine Versicherung AG, Raiffeisenplatz 1, D-65189 Wiesbaden undertakes by order of the Hamburger Yacht-Versicherung Schomacker Versicherungsmakler GmbH as insured person a guarantee insurance for securing charter deposits to recompense all or part of the security deposit paid by the Charterer to the charter company under the terms of the agreement described, on condition that:

- the security deposit was paid by the Charterer in cash, via bank transfer or by credit card/cheque confirmed by a receipt issued to him by the charter company,
- the Charterer has paid the full charter fee for the chartered yacht, confirmed by the appropriate receipts,
- during the period of insurance the Skipper is in possession of the sailing license officially required in respect of the vessel and/or the voyage,

- the charter company refuses to refund all or of part of the security deposit to the charterer due to damage on the chartered yacht during the period of charter caused by the charterer/skipper or the crew.

The guarantee is limited to the security deposit amount described by the Charterer. Compensation will however be excluded, in the event that the charterer uses the yacht chartered on the basis of the described agreement to:

- organise charter tours on a commercial basis or to operate the yacht on behalf of a charter company on a commercial basis or in return for a benefit in money's worth (available upon request)
- takes part in regattas (available upon request),

Excluded of the guarantee are

- damages caused to the chartered vessel as a result of gross negligence or damages caused deliberately,
- damages to the yacht as the result of war, warlike operations, riots, strike, confiscation by public authorities or damages caused by nuclear energy (radioactivity),
- damages caused by reblocking of sludge tank.

IMPORTANT

We expressly request that you do not mention this guarantee insurance to the representatives of the charter company. Always conduct yourself as if you have no such insurance cover. Check the precise reasons why the charter company has not repaid your security deposit.

Theft of a dinghy is to be reported to the police immediately and provable.

It should as a matter of course be clear that this guarantee insurance only covers the loss of your security deposit as a result of damage caused to the chartered yacht and does not cover additional costs - such as cleaning, hire of bedding, reblocking of sludge tank, and use of fuel, including where these costs are settled by deduction from the security deposit.

Please also note that the charter agreement will not normally require you to pay for the costs of normal wear and tear sustained by the yacht.

Damage has to be reported to us immediately by mail, fax or post, even if the damage is very small. The damage has to be reported at the latest 1 month after ending the charter trip, otherwise the claim can not be settled.

Conditions/Premiums

The guarantee insurance premium follows from the deposit amount to be insured – the chosen deposit sum must not be lower than the deposit actually lodged.

- The insurer's guarantee is maximized with the deposit actually lodged.
